PROTOCOL TITLE: No Pain, No Gain: Attachment Anxiety, Sensory Processing Sensitivity, and Empathy in a Therapist Sample

PROTOCOL ID NO: 19/10-133

REVIEW TYPE: Limited Review

ACTION: IRB Exempt Determination/Approval

Your application has been reviewed using the University's Institutional Review Board's (IRB) administrative review process and can be considered to be an EXEMPT methodology/approach as defined in 45 CFR 46.104.d.2:

Research that only includes interactions involving educational tests (cognitive, diagnostic, aptitude, achievement), survey procedures, interview procedures, or observation of public behavior (including visual or auditory recording) if at least one of the following criteria is met:

- i. The information obtained is recorded by the investigator in such a manner that identity of the human subjects cannot readily be ascertained, directly or through identifiers linked to the subjects;
- ii. Any disclosure of the human subjects' responses outside the research would not reasonably place the subjects at risk of criminal or civil liability or be damaging to the subjects' financial standing, employability, educational advancement, or reputation;
or
- iii. The information obtained is recorded by the investigator in such a manner that the identity of the human subjects can readily be ascertained, directly or through identifiers linked to the subject, and an IRB conducts a limited IRB review to make the determination required by §46.111(a)(7).

Please note: Revisions and amendments to the research activity must be promptly reported to the IRB for review and approval prior to the commencement of the revised protocol. If the project is amended so that it is no longer considered to be exempt research as per the federal definitions, it will be necessary for the investigators to submit an application for full committee review.
